

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Miss Malaysia Tourism Visits to "Opulence CARE 乐理护老之家"

29.04.2018 –The visitation, led by a group of former Miss Malaysia included Zoe Tan: Miss Malaysia Queen of Tourism 1996, Lim Sui Pei: Miss Malaysia Asia Pacific 1999, Carrie Lee: Miss Malaysia Tourism 2003, Tiong Li San: Miss Malaysia Tourism Metropolitan 2016, Paris Lai Kah Yin: Miss Malaysia Asia Pacific 2017, Tan Sri Datuk Danny Ooi the president & owner of Miss Malaysia Tourism Pageant and the organizing team spent two hours activities at the centre.

Opulence CARE is to provide exceptional care for the elderly in a safe, comfort and beautiful home. The aim of Opulence CARE is creating a supportive and nurturing environment thus enabling not only each resident to be more carefree while having an opportunity to engage in meaningful activity, but also caregiver be able to serve in a more positive environment.

It was a joyful sight as faces of the elderly lit up with smiles during the interactive sessions with the Miss Malaysia. The "Because We Care" Campaign has also donated some daily grocery items to the home. At the time Opulence Care is housing 18 elderly.

With the vision to spread the spirit of "Loving Sunday" this Because We Care Campaign along with D'Touch International's Miss Malaysia will set the last Sunday of every month with a mission to provide the needed items for the less privileged in the communities. This campaign will also see the beauty queens promoting caring heart with interactive sessions with the old folks and orphans.

For those who would like join in to contribute to the event, please call D'Touch International: Because We Care, 603 92841133 or log into www.facebook.com/MissMalaysiaTourism/events
